These panels represent twelve Buddhistic delties and also the god of war, re placed in apparently a haphazard way upon the damask, though doubtas the arrangement has plenty of symolic meaning. There is also a large nuttle woven temple hanging with five lawed imperial dragons on a vellow ground that will attract the attention f

DISCUSS NEW TAX ON STOCK DIVIDENDS

Congress Committee Would Place Charge on 'Privilege.'

secial to The SUN and New York Heratic

WASHINGTON, March 18 .- A majority of the members of the House Ways and leans Committee believes that the loss f revenue from the decision of th me Court that stock dividends are of taxable can be made up by a retroictive tax on the privilege of issuing tock dividends, it was learned to-day. How to make up the deficits caused by the necessary refunds under the decision and to prevent future losses was discurred by the committee at a meeting

Heretofore members have been in abl as to whether a tax on the privege of issuing stock dividends could made retroactive and thus make up sees, but the discussion to-day aled that the prevalling belief is that power is granted under the income tax amendment of the Constitution,

Committee members to-day talked of per cent, on the amount of stock lividends issued for the mere privilege f dividing profits in that form. Obviusly this would force the discontinua ance of virtually all dividends in stocks. One plan discursed was for graduating the privilege tax, increasing the perentage with the amount of stock divi-

Because of the doubt as to whether uch a tax can be made retroactive committee decided to call officials of the Treasury Department to obtain their Hearings will begin on Thurs.
